Collard: Serves on the Past Chairmen's Council of the Turnaround Management Association

The Turnaround Management Association (www.Turnaround.org) is the premier professional community dedicated to corporate renewal and turnaround management. The association represents multiple constituencies working in the bankruptcy, corporate renewal, investment, lending, turnaround, and restructuring industry. The association has developed a certification program to highlight those individuals who pass the rigorous examination and background reference check process: Certified Turnaround Professional (www.actp.org). Several professionals have demonstrated their leadership positions in the industry and stepped up to lead the association to the next level in its development cycle. Here is a list of the Past Chairpersons who have lead the TMA. [John M.
